REGULATION FOR REMOVAL EXPENSES OF CLERGYMEN 2003

---

1. The Synod shall pay for the reasonable cost of the removal of furniture and effects of:
  - a. A clergyman and his family from his place of residence in Australia upon his appointment to any full time office within the Diocese;
  - b. A clergyman and his family to a place of residence in South Australia upon his retirement from full time service.
  - c. A clergyman and his family to a place of residence in South Australia upon being determined temporarily or permanently disabled.
  - d. A clergyman's widow and her dependants to her place of residence in South Australia upon the death of her husband while in full time service with the Diocese.
  - e. A portion of no more than fifty percent of the removal costs of a clergyman on retirement; or upon being determined temporarily or permanently disabled; or for his widow to a residence outside South Australia but within the Commonwealth of Australia. Such portion shall be negotiated by the Registrar and brought to Diocesan Council for approval or re-negotiation.
2. A Clergyman will be required to submit three written quotations for his Removal to the Registrar who will decide which is the most appropriate.
3. The cost of transit insurance will be covered by the Synod at a reasonable rate determined by the Registrar.
4. The cost of packing will be a charge on the clergyman or widow concerned.
5. Diocesan Council may vary the conditions of this Regulation at its discretion.
